How To Use This Book

A helpful hint for seasoned readers:

If you are an extremely seasoned reader, or if you have purchased this program with intention to head straight into the tactics or methods, and therefore just want the straight laydown of everything, you should start the course, from Chapter 10 onward, or “Part 12” of the audio course, onward.

The reason I am stating this, is because the sections leading up to this part of the program, offer a rather extensive, and in depth explanation and breakdown of the knowledge that has to be learned, or broken down in order to use the steps, tactics, rules, and guidelines all listed after this point.

Please note that great care has been taken in this course to explain, in depth, all of the concepts, ideas, rules, tactics, and guidelines for all levels of readers, and for all levels of experience.

Should you, therefore, not require a more in depth explanation of the basic foundations for building and using the Drama Method itself, and are just therefore looking to cut straight to the chase, or want to head straight into the techniques themselves, then simply head to the aforementioned sections, and start from there.

It should be noted however, that the main core principle of the entire Drama Method is explained in the sections before Chapter 11, or “Part 13” of the audio files. If you truly want to get the most out of this program, it is recommended that you try to follow through with learning the necessary basic knowledge and understanding that you will need to actually implement the tactics, methods, and guidelines that follow afterward.

But I will trust you to know what you need the most, and with consideration of the more seasoned or experienced readers, it is again recommended that if you are looking to go in straight for the kill, that you start the program as previously mentioned.

If you however, are looking for a more in depth experience, and want to learn the necessary rules, knowledge, and understanding that you should have in order to get the most out of this program, then you should instead, follow the course of action listed below:

This course is divided into 3 strategic segments.

The first segment, is the introduction, which details the powerfully true love story of Amy & Derek. You will notice that the introduction is separated into two sections, one detailing the perspective of Derek, and the other detailing the perspective of Amy.
This was done to give you the maximum amount of insight, because I will be referencing Amy’s story throughout the rest of the book, to use as an example and guide, when explaining the rules, tactics, and guidelines throughout this book.

Due to this fact, Amy’s story has been laid out quite extensively, and very carefully, so as to give you the best possible insight into everything you are about to learn, with a direct example to always reference back to.

To help you, in this section of the program, I have designed Amy’s story to be as entertaining yet productive as possible, but do know that every part of this section, is actually a true story. I have done this for a reason, because I would like you to know going into this, that I am going to be giving you honest, truthful, and real advice in this program, even down to the most extensive story I will tell you.

I hope that in doing so, I have at least earned your trust to in the very least, give this program a try. Now I am no stranger to change, and I know that it can be hard to actually implement something new in your life, especially if you are feeling all alone in trying to do it.

So I want to offer you right now, my hand, to help walk you through this experience, together, so that you don’t have to feel alone. I have taken the utmost care to design this program, with you in mind, so that as you go through this course, you can relate to, resonate with, and feel connected with the content, methods, and tactics that you will learn about.

The only thing that I ask in return, is that you try your best to complete the program. I promise you that this program is more than worth it, and in fact, many women have seen a great level of success with this program, just by giving it a try.

Now I know there are a lot of sections in this program, so to simplify everything for you, I want you to first, just let the information soak in, and absorb. Go through the program, and allow yourself to let the ideas, concepts, and methods soak in.

The reason why I am asking you to do this, is because if you follow this advice, you will find that something in the program will speak to you, and it will give you an answer to a problem, that you have been trying to solve or fix for a long time now, in your love life.

Now, on the other hand, often times when we get something, we expect it to be able to fix everything at once, but there’s one tiny problem with this expectation. It means that you are also expecting yourself to be able to fix everything at once.

This is a hard expectation to fulfill, even for successful people. This is why I want you to allow just one thing, to come through, and give you a breakthrough, from this program. You’ll find that if you can let, even just one thing in, that many more things will follow, and will flow for you.
Things will become more clear after that, and it will become extremely easy to put this course to the ultimate use, in your life, from that point onward. It will be easier to come back to this course too, and know exactly what you are looking for, grab it, and to go and put that to use.

I’d rather you experience my program this way, than to attempt to try to take everything in at once, or to try to do everything at once. I don’t want you to experience a burnout. I actually want you to experience something better, something more grand, and to help you do that, I simply ask that you let this course or program simply flow through you, on the first round.

I promise you, that you will know what to do with it, and what you can use it for very clearly after that, which leads me to my next point:

The second segment of this program, details the knowledge that you will need to successfully use the Drama Method, and its tactics. This section is designed to break through the lies, misconceptions, and misleading conventional thought patterns, that often hinder or completely destroy your chances at a happily ever after, when it comes to your love life.

Trust me, when I say that this section is probably not even what you expected, but it’s going to blow your mind, because you see, this segment is necessary to learning how to use the Drama Method. That’s because it allows you to get the insight that you actually need, into how it works, why it works, and much more.

The third segment of this program, is filled with pure and unadulterated tactics, methods, and rules. There are 19 sections exactly, and each section is designed to give you a powerful set of instructions on how to complete the tactic or method successfully.

Many other relationship courses, books, or programs out there, spend a lot of time only talking about what you have to do, but they never really lead you into an explanation or guideline as to HOW you need to do it. I want you let you know, that this program, has taken that kind of conventional thinking, and has thrown it completely out the window.

I have, once again, taken care to make sure that this course is absolutely, 100% about YOU. You have invested in this course, and I want to allow this course to give back to you on almost extreme levels. This is why I have made almost the entire program, into a massive tactical guide, of options, methods, and guidelines that you can use, to immediately start seeing a change in your love life, and beyond.

The best part of all of this, is that I don’t just tell you what to do, but that I show you how you should do it, and tell you why it works as well. This means that you will be set up, to finally be in a position to have the deepest, and most extensive clarity you have ever had, when it comes to men and relationships, from here on out.
The Drama Infusion:

I will explain more about this, as you head into segment 2 of this program, however, I’d like for you to understand going into this program, that infused into every chapter of this course, is a level of what I like to call ‘necessary drama’. Now, I will explain exactly what necessary drama is, and how to use it, in segment 2 of this program, but for now I’d like you to understand that this is an extremely good thing.

The infusion of necessary drama is especially relevant in segment 3, and I’d like you to therefore pay attention to that reality, and to tie back in what you will learn about necessary drama in segment 2, to therefore get the most out of all of the tactics, methods, rules, and guidelines that appear throughout this course.

Using The 3 Free Reports:

Alongside this course, you have been given a series of 3 free reports as a further extension of my dedication to try and help you finally get everything you wanted from your love life, your relationship, and your man.

These reports further address the concepts and ideas that tie back into the use of the tactics and methods detailed in the final section of the book, and are therefore very useful when combined with this course.

It’s therefore important to note that you must go through the main Drama Method program first, however, for some of the concepts in those reports to make sense, as I will reference back to the Drama Method program in some of those reports.

Due to this fact, it is recommended that you first go through the Drama Method program completely, before moving on to the reports, so that you can understand the methods or tactics listed in the reports. Keep in mind that these reports are a further extension of the actual Drama Method program itself.

What To Do As You Go Through The Program:

As you go through the segments in this program, I would like for you to actually take notes, where possible. The reason for this is simple: when something clicks, or speaks to you, or intrigues you, it’s important to jot that information down.
I guarantee you, that there will be quite a few things throughout the course of this program, that will make you wonder, or that will make you curious, in the very least, and those are going to be the things that you are going to want to remember, since they stand out the strongest in your mind.

Now I am not asking you to go out and do everything in this course, all at once, or even right away. All that I am asking you to do at this stage, is to make mental or physical notes of the things that actually stand out, to your specific situation, so that you can easily reference them later, and so that you can use them right away as well.

You will know what I am talking about, once you get to that stage, but for now, allow yourself to actually soak in the information, and take notes when something pops out in your mind as being important, relevant, or useful to your unique and individual situation.

Doing this helps to cement the ideas and knowledge further into your mind, so that you actually become more likely to take positive action in your love life and relationships.

That is the intention that I have personally set for this program, is to try and design it to help you get the most interestingly unique yet powerful result in your love life, and relationships.

The first step, therefore in helping you do that, has already happened, through the creation of this program. The second step, then, is simply for you to now go through this course, and to try to get as much as you can from it, that speaks to you, for your situation.

So please, feel free to take notes, and to jot down tidbits as they stand out to you, because this will help you greatly the deeper you get into this course, to easily break down your own situation, and to resolve it quickly as well, because you will be giving yourself the exact blueprint you need to actually do this, after that.

Remember that I can only teach you, show you, and guide you in what to do, but the other half comes in whether or not you take action after that. Part of helping yourself to take action, again, comes in even the simple steps that you take, even while you are learning. Give yourself the best chance at success, therefore, by starting things off with one simple level of action.
Jot down whatever speaks to you, and even write down your feelings about what that means, how you feel about it, and what you want to do with that, if possible. Remember that the more you do, with the information that you are about to learn, the better your results will be.

But I don’t want you to feel too overwhelmed at first, which is why I am just asking you to go through the course, to get the information first, and to collect the pieces that speak to you on the greatest level.

For now, I just want you to get the information, concepts, ideas, and knowledge necessary to learn in the first place. That alone is a huge step. It will be easier for you to actually take action, once you understand what it is that you have to do, as well.

So give yourself the time, to actually do this for yourself, and your love life, because once you do, you will feel phenomenally enlightened and empowered after this, when it comes to getting the results that you want in your love life, in a very fascinating and unique way, as the Drama Method is about to teach you.

So without further ado, I now present to you, The Drama Method program!
